B2V programme is a good initiative to reach out to the expectations of people. Two days are not sufficient to redress all their grievances. It should rather be a weekly programme and all the line dept's field functionaries should stay for the whole week in the panchayats to deliver services at the doorstep. For instance, Aadhar, gas connection, water connection, power connection, pension services, filling of forms for various subsidy oriented schemes etc should be done during this programme.
