III	Overall perception of functioning of the government:
	B2V is being perceived as an ambitious programme marked with creating massive awareness on govt. schemes. The govt. functionaries work in close coordination to meet expectations of masses. Overall people appreciate officers reaching them at their door steps and taking note of their basic requirements and challenges. People from all walks of life have praised this programme.
IV	Overall assessment of visit and suggestions:
	(the visiting officer to ensure that the overall assessment is recorded in detail along with concrete suggestions.)
	The programme proved a success. Although it was held in the outskirts of the village, yet many villagers turned up to attend the programme. People raised many developmental issues like go roads, drains, requirement of drinking water, electricity poles, transformers and development of health and educational infrastructure. The people were given a patient hearing and measures were taken to redress their demands and issues.
