IV Overall assessment of visit and suggestions:

(the visiting officer to ensure that the overall assessment is recorded in detail along with concrete suggestions.)

The overall assessment of the visit was satisfactory and fruitful, the people fully cooperated and participated in the talk to village 2 programme. The people addressed their problems and wanted redressal of the grievances in the first instance. My best practice was to listen the people by activated nerves and with emotional coefficient. All the government functionaries were in active mood and provided full support and cooperation. Best drive to full fill the lacunae on the part of the government.
