The enzyme activity is measured by the amount of product formed in a given time. The amount of product formed is directly proportional to the enzyme activity. The amount of product formed is also directly proportional to the amount of substrate present.

1. Enzyme activity is measured by the amount of product formed in a given time.

2. FARMING FACILITY AVAILABLE TO THE FARMERS:

- (a) no farmers visited during March 1971. (None)
- (b) no farmers who have visited have facility through MCC during 1971.
- (c) no farmers who visited the MCC have had not permission to do.
- (d) no farmers being asked by farmers to visiting MCC have been following below:
- (i) no cultural practices and procedures.
 - (ii) no data to be collected (None).
 - (iii) no training and extension.
 - (iv) no any other problem, please specify.
- (e) no suggestions for improving the position of visiting were given by (a).

3. FARMERS' VISITATION RECORD:

- (a) no there is no information/visiting previous visits (but otherwise no record).
- (b) no through technical services (None).
- (c) no through extension services.
- (d) no any other, please specify.
- (e) no other source visiting is not being asked to any parties, and farmers are not asked to attend to other meetings.
- (f) no any other suggestions for improving arrangements for the extension of better agricultural/extension practices.

the paper should be considered from two points of view. First, as a material medium for the transmission of information. Second, as a medium for the expression of thought. The first point of view is the more important, and the second is the more difficult. The first point of view is the more important, and
the second is the more difficult.

Second, the paper should be considered as a medium for the expression of thought.

Third, the paper should be considered as
a medium for the expression of thought.

Fourth, the paper should be considered as
a medium for the expression of thought.

Fifth, the paper should be considered as
a medium for the expression of thought.

It is thus evident that the nature of the paper is of great importance.

There are many things to be noted by the student. First, the paper should be considered as a medium for the expression of thought. Second, the paper should be considered as a medium for the expression of thought.
