  - Requirement of Sheep & animal Husbandry.
  - Need of playground for which land is already available as high
  - Farmers demanding leaving off of K.C.C. lands

ii. Any major complaint brought to notice of the Visiting Officer:

Majority of people were complaining for absence of electricity for so long & the damage caused by recent snow fall is yet to be compensated. Electric poles & lines are still on ground & employees of concerned dept. are paying delay. While contacting T.E., he was not able to present himself on the occasion. Additionally one mohalla of this village is totally un-electrified which is very strange in this era.

BV2/PD&MD/2019

III Overall perception of functioning of the government:

Visit to Sagar (B) as a visiting officer under B2V2 programme was heartwarming experience.

Employees from different departments were present except that of P.D.O. Functioning of govt. seemed to be working smooth. However majority of population were complaining for absence of electricity from very long & employees were paying dear for

IV Overall assessment of visit and suggestions:

(the visiting officer to ensure that the overall assessment is recorded in detail along with concrete suggestions.)

All the govt. officials co-operated nicely. R.D.O. employees are working sincerely. People are demanding time & again for basic necessities - electricity, roads, drinking water, good health & proper education.
