III Overall perception of functioning of the government:

Overall perception is that PRTs functioning in theory is hundred percent pro-public but due to the ignorance of public, indifferent attitude of officials, bureaucratic over-involvement and lack of sufficient funds hampers good governance at doorsteps.

IV Overall assessment of visit and suggestions:

(the visiting officer to ensure that the overall assessment is recorded in detail along with concrete suggestions.)

These visits develop work-culture, punctuality and public spirit among govt servants. Such programmes must be capitalised. No doubt there are various hindrances in making PRI's a success ^{suggestion:} we should enhance the co-operation and co-ordination of the ground staff, security of elected representatives is needed, wages of the panchayat members needs to be enhanced, panchs should be trained fully in art of governance. These institutions must not be politicised in the slogan of Back to village.
