The Govt. Department functioning satisfactorily. At the same time, require more initiative by the departments so as to provide various government schemes and developmental Programme benefits at the doorstep of all the people to make their life better in term of material amenities and economic upliftment. More and more steps should be taken to bridge the gap between the government and people in order to obtain optimum results.

IV Overall assessment of visit and suggestions.

(the visiting officer to ensure that the overall assessment is recorded in detail along with concrete suggestions.)

The work Programme started by the govt. gives us an opportunity to meet Panchayat representative, village elders and other local people and to know the various problems faced at the grass root level. During interactions people show good enthusiasm, but also raised their concerns and were upset as grievances highlighted during B2V2 Programme was not addressed. High expectations were observed among them as many demands were raised by them this time also, including basic amenities like drinking water, power supply, health, better road connectivity etc. Five suggestions given on Page 28 should be given priority for their economic upliftment and better living standard. Their expectations through this feedback Programme should be incorporated as much as possible in future development Programme of the Panchayat. People expects and wishes the govt. to be more responsive and more agile.
