The back to village programme is now taking the shape of a mega event. It is being well received by the general public of rural areas. It serves as a platform where people living in rural areas put their demands directly before the visiting officers for redressal. The people are made aware about the schemes and programmes of the Govt. for taking the due benefit accordingly. This has helped in strengthening & streamlining the development scenario at the rural level/C.P level. The need is to take a regular follow up and feedback to have better results out of this programme. The PRI's are now empowered to take decisions for the betterment of general public <sup>in order</sup> to achieve the goal of inclusive development.
