NOTES

34

- Back to Village 3 Consequentially is appreciating programme in which people feel comfort and take part in the different schemes in very interesting atmosphere as different departments (by representatives) reflect the works and explain the same before the people of the village.
- As now Govt. should take steps to complete the pending works which are yet to be completed.
- The programme is interesting in the sense that different departments are combined in the same platform and share different works they perform in respective fields. It is a congenial atmosphere as reflected in the common platform. It is a dire need to fulfill the demands of the people as put forth before authorities.
- On distribution of sports kit there was a untoward between youth of village and school students **

** But we have managed to be like friends each other and kept the Sports kit in custody of School Head Teacher and gave instruction to issue the same to youth se school students after proper receipt.
