Overall assessment of visit and suggestions:

(The visiting officer to ensure that the overall assessment is recorded in detail along with concrete suggestions.)

The programme remained successful with active participation of general public and representatives of various Govt Departments besides the presence of Sarpanch & other Panchayat members. It is a direct and good step by the Govt to reach common masses for redressal of their problems. Many works have been completed and some are pending and people expect early completion of their needful works. Rural Development having excellent performance.
