Overall assessment of visit and suggestion in

1 (The visiting officer to confirm that the external assessment is recorded in detail along with curriculum suggestions)

It has been observed during the visit, that people are not fully aware about many schemes available and it is of great felt that together we can help in the development of the village itself. It is organized for people awareness camp inside village itself need to be organized for people education if common masses about these schemes. It is also being felt that going to be more schemes people often are found to be exploited. Care needs to be taken with regard to awarding, overlooking of scheme applications amongst the deserving families, persons.

Strong need was felt with regard to holding of regular health camps in village. Specific health camp to be held at least once a week in village. Providing of proper feeding facilities to the children in the school. There was also a need to be taken with regard to people, especially girls who are going to school.
