NOTES

Bowen Watsar is a Kandi village having population of about 1500, mostly dealing with agriculture and horticulture. The people of the village are hospitable and humble in nature. The public in general is satisfied with the schemes of the government and with the ^{concerned} Govt. Employees. RDP and Social welfare are the main sources of contributions in the village and are highly satisfied with these two dept. The Sarpanch of the village (Kalga) is a sincere and visionary person who is always on toes to work for the community. The village has a high potential of being on tourist map as it lies on the Bungus road. The Sheep and Animal Rearing units will boost the economy of the Kalga if provided. Home Stay homes can also give attraction to the tourist. Overall the village is making development in all fronts.
