overall assessment

So far as the overall assessment of the Bulek village programme is concerned, it is a well come step taken by the Govt. to assess the issues at doorstep of the people and to suggest the measures to reduce the issues of the people in consultation with the representatives of diff. govt. departments.

This programme also provides an opportunity to assess the development of the concerned Panchayat Halqas and also provides an opportunity to different govt. officials of different departments to locate main areas in which work needs to be done on fast-track basis.

It also provides an opportunity to Govt. to have a better liaison with the people of the state and to have their contribution in the overall development of the country and also to know their wishes. It also
