During the evening of the 1st day and also during the interaction with the participants, the benefits of health cards, e-shram card, land pass books and other self employment schemes of Government were highlighted.

The participants were encouraged to adopt self employment schemes of the Government like MUMKIN, PMEGP, integrated farming for self sufficiency. The menace of corruption was discussed in the meetings across the panchayat and the public was encouraged to expose the corrupt activities and take part to stop dishonest practices and also keep the public sector honest, transparent and accountable.

The public was made aware about the concept of 'Beti Bachao, Beti Padhao' to improve efficiency of welfare services for girls and also to improve child sex ratio.

The public were also made aware regarding various on-line services and requested to avail e-services platform.

During the event, some incidents of life of Gandhi Ji were briefed with regard to greatness of Mahatma Gandhi's life and swatchta, simple living, peace etc. to introduce his greatness among the public.

Overall assessment: The Panchayat Bohardar-A is mostly hilly terrain and is connected by the road upto Garguani (part of Bohardar) and most of the area like Kanibal, Topan, Sohilpora & Naikpora are not yet connected with road. Even some of the area of Garguani is un-electrified till date. There is shortage of staff at H.S. Bohardar and also the existing play ground of the said school need upgradation. With regard to health care facility, there is only one sub-centre located at Garguani and the public residing at Kanibal, Topan, Naikpora have to travel a long distance to avail health care facility. The Panchayat also require a play ground to attract youths. The existing electric distribution system needs upgradation and un-electrified households needs to be electrified. The Kirti Centre is also required for the Panchayat for enhancing the rural business by providing various services to the customers at nearby.

To,

The visiting Officer
Bohardar (A)

Subj. An application for House.

Sir,

With humble submission I state that I belong from very poor family. perhaps you know that due to road connectivity my house was destroyed and the govt provide me only one lakh rupees. You know that sir in these days one lakh is nothing. I live with my family members, having 7 people in a tin shed. So I am humbly requesting you please forward my application to higher authorities and provide me house for my and my family members survival.

I am highly thankful to you for this act of kindness.

Yours faithfully.

Wali Mohd Ohobi.
