Today on 31st of October 2022, a meeting was organised at Panchayat Ghar Panjgrain Lower-A. The meeting was chaired by Sarpanch Halqa Panjgrain Lower-A Sh. Kramat Hussain. The meeting was attended by all the PRI members along with general Public from the Panchayat. Among the others present in the meeting were Sh. Tanveer Ahmed Mir (HOD, DIET Rajouri), members of youth club, members from various committees, and frontline workers and officials from various Governmental Departments.

AGENDA: Conduct of Back to Village Phase-II & listening to urgent demands of people.

The Concerned Sarpanch briefed the general public about the Government's initiative to take the government to the grass-root level i.e. village. The visiting officer then gave some information about government's various steps towards welfare and social security of people at grass-root level.

During the course of meeting, the Visiting Officer listened to various issues that are present in the Panchayat and people requested the visiting officer to take their demands and problems to the higher levels of the administration. The visiting officer asked the people about the problems that were already discussed in the earlier phases of the Back to Village Programme. It was observed that some problems got the remedy but some demands were still not fulfilled. From about hundreds of demands the Panchayat agreed to cut short the list of demands and as the visiting officer to take up the list of following works to be taken up during the 4th phase of Back to Village Program.
