One Mr. Sadam Hussain S/O Mohd Shabir R/O village Mahari Gajjaran complained that he did not receive payment for construction of tractor road in Mehari Gujjaran. The complaint was handed over to BDO Rajouri for sorting out the issue. 02. The complaint was handed over to BDO Rajouri to readdress the grievance of the complainant. ii	Major / urgent public demands that was / were reflected earlier but have not been addressed so far: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Road from Pangala via Khorl to Javid Mohra</li> </ol>
iii	Overall assessment of the visit and suggestion: Overall functioning of the Gram Panchayat was good. Small public demands are being met within the available resources. Major demands have not been met most probably due to heavy financial implications. Road connectivity is must for development of any area. The demand for road construction is quite genuine and needs to be given due consideration. Besides, existing roads require black topping. There is no High School in the Gram Panchayat

and the nearest High School is about 10 Km away from the Govt. Middle School Mehari Gujjaran which can be upgraded to the level of a High School. Facilities for Primary smart classes and development of play fields are required to be considered for the Schools. Existence of a PHC along with an Ambulance will lessen the health related problems of the people. Unemployment issue can be addressed by skill development of youth, implementation of self employment schemes and focused attention on Agricultural / Horticultural production.
