It is strongly recommended that these institutes should be considered on priority and given best possible aid.

Along with School Education department Rural development department is also working enthusiastically to cope with all the challenges faced by civilians. They ^{are} trying their best to bring a change & development in the areas.

2. Revenue department is least responsive in terms of delivery of public services. There was no representative present in the B2V4 in from their side and a number of public grievances are lying pending. The civilians had no awareness p. 10
