			2) Secretary Panchayat informed the members of the Panchayat that as per the directions of the Block Development Officer there is a need for Nisha Must Ashiyon should be taken in the Panchayat. He also told the members of the Panchayat that many children now a days are getting habitually to the drugs which is spoiling their life. Many children have lost their lives by using these drugs. They have become drug addicts. He also told that Parents can play a vital role in checking the menace of the drug as they had to keep a vigil on the daily activities of their children. They should not give them free hand as mostly children are prone to drug peddlers and get into their clutches easily. The members of the Panchayat are of the view that an awareness should be given to the local residents of the Panchayat. The people should keep a check on the daily peddlers and if found should be
